

UC Intro

Contents

Overview

Why Utter Command?

- 1.1 UC in a nutshell
- 1.2 Differences between UC and NatSpeak
- 1.3 A comparison of keyboard, mouse, NatSpeak and UC commands

Setting up

- 2.1 Installing Utter Command
- 2.2 Recommended Windows operating system settings
  - 2.2.1 UC commands you'll need for settings changes
  - 2.2.2 Taskbar and Start Menu Properties: a comfortable view
  - 2.2.3 Control Panel: underline shortcuts, mouse snap and font size
- 2.3 Recommended settings for selected programs
  - 2.3.1 Make pdf documents appear quickly in Adobe Reader
  - 2.3.2 Use the Firefox Mouseless Browsing extension to click links by speech
  - 2.3.3 Enable easy text navigation and selection in Firefox
  - 2.3.4 Open PDFs in default application (usually Adobe Reader) rather than Firefox
  - 2.3.5 Set Windows Explorer to open rtf files in WordPad rather than Word by default
  - 2.3.6 Speed Word by not checking Spelling & Grammar as you type
  - 2.3.7 Prevent the Getting Started task pane from automatically appearing in Word, Excel
- 2.4 Recommended NatSpeak Options dialog box settings
- 2.5 Recommended NatSpeak vocabulary adjustments

Whirlwind tour of Utter Command

- 3.1 Whirlwind Tour preparation
- 3.2 Taking the Whirlwind Tour
- 3.3 Learning more about the commands
- 3.4 Whirlwind Tour
- 3.5 Advanced Whirlwind Tour

The Utter Command Menu

- 4.1 Accessing the UC menu
- 4.2 The Utter Command menu map

The Utter Command manual

- 5.1 Parts of the UC manual
- 5.2 Style and conventions
- 5.3 Practical advice for learning UC

Windows, programs and speech interface elements and behavior

- 6.1 Windows objects
- 6.2 Windows behavior
- 6.3 Speech interface objects
- 6.4 Speech interface behavior

We want your feedback