

Lesson 9: Working with the Web

Contents

Overview

- Setting the foundation
- Going faster

Lesson

Commands you can use in any browser

- 9.1 Bringing up a Web site
- 9.2 Adding Web sites to the Site list
- 9.3 Navigating Web sites using any browser
- 9.4 Selecting text from a Web page using any browser

Additional commands for Firefox and Internet Explorer

- 9.5 Additional commands for navigating the Web with Firefox: Link control and selecting text
- 9.6 NatSpeak commands for navigating the Web with Internet Explorer

Going faster: Specific searches, pasting paths, quick links and switching browsers

- 9.7 Narrowing searches to a specific Web site and/or specific text
- 9.8 Pasting the path of a Web site
- 9.9 Going to any unlinked Web address, and switching browsers

Review Tour: Working with the Web
